Pursuant 18 U.S.C. § 3663A, defendant is ordered to pay $688,386.66 in restitution as part of the final judgment in this case. This amount includes $600,000 to Walter Maibaum, for the value of the “Little Dancer” sculpture that defendant obtained by fraud and which has not been recovered. It also includes $61,343.10 to Walter Maibaum for attorney’s fees and expenses proximately caused by defendant’s crime. It finally includes $27,043.56 to Rose Long for attorney’s fees and expenses proximately caused by defendant’s crime.

Further, the government recovered several works of art during the execution of a search and seizure warrant in this case. Of the artwork recovered by the government, the George Luks painting shall be returned to Rose Long and the remaining works of art shall be returned to Walter Maibaum. However, this order is stayed with respect to the four works of art that were introduced as trial exhibits:
